MURFREESBORO MAN FATALLY SHOT, SHOOTER STEALS HIS VEHICLE

MURFREESBORO, TN (August 2, 2019) – The Murfreesboro Police Department has launched an investigation into a fatal shooting of man, in his late 20's, overnight and is trying to track down the shooter who stole the victim's vehicle.

Around 3:12 a.m. Friday, August 2, officers responded to the Villager Condominiums, 2850 Middle Tennessee Blvd, after receiving a call from a neighbor who heard multiple gunshots and saw the male victim laying on the sidewalk.

Personnel with the Rutherford County Emergency Medical Services (RCEMS), with assistance from Murfreesboro Fire Rescue Department, began treating the victim on scene. He was transported by RCEMS to Saint Thomas Rutherford Hospital where he was pronounced dead. His identity will not be released until after his family has been notified.

Detectives have recovered the stolen vehicle.

The shooter remains on the run.

The incident is being investigated by detectives with the Criminal Investigations Division.
