City Council Holds Special Class & Comp Report Meeting, April 16

The Murfreesboro City Council will hold a special meeting to discuss the draft Class & Comp Study report, Thursday, April 16, 2015, 5:30 p.m., in the Council Chambers of City Hall, 111 West Vine Street.

- Who: The City Council will hold a special meeting to discuss the draft Class & Comp Study report, first made public on March 19.
- What: The draft Classification & Compensation Study was developed by Management Advisory Group, Inc. (MAG), involving employee engagement at all levels of the process.
- When: Thursday, April 16, 2015 – 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.
- Where: Murfreesboro City Hall, Council Chambers
111 West Vine Street
Murfreesboro, TN 37130

The draft report recommends annualized employee pay increases totaling over $2.3 million. The full 300-page MAG report document can be viewed online at <http://www.murfreesborotn.gov/index.aspx?NID=793>. The plan recommends a 16-step pay plan for public safety and a unified pay plan for all other City employees.
