Vice Unit serves search warrants on three massage businesses

On March 26, 2015 MPD Vice Detectives served search warrants on three businesses suspected of engaging in the crimes of Impersonating Licensed Professionals and Prostitution. Evidence was seized at each of the locations and is part of the ongoing investigation. Detective David Harrison will present the cases to the Rutherford County Grand Jury for possible criminal charges. Last Call 4 Grace Ministries assisted investigators by providing resources to the women working in these businesses.

This investigation is part of the Department's continuing effort to fight human trafficking, one person at a time, one life at a time.
