Habibi Hookah Café and TBI 10 Most Wanted homicide suspect arrested in Colorado

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. (February 17, 2022) – A collaborative effort between the Murfreesboro Police Department (MPD), Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI), the United States Marshals Office, and Weld County Colorado Sheriff's Office resulted in the capture of Jamar Marks in Evans, Colorado on Thursday, Feb. 17.

MPD detectives and TBI special agents executed multiple search warrants and subpoenas that revealed Marks' location.

The U.S. Marshals, using information provided by MPD and TBI, located Marks and took him into custody around 9:45 p.m.

Marks was wanted on multiple felony warrants, including the first-degree murder of 35-year-old Brandon Anderson in the parking lot of the Habibi Hookah Café on Feb. 12.

He was added to the TBI 10 Most Wanted.

Marks remains in Colorado awaiting extradition back to Tennessee to face charges.
